Plainfield Parks Photo Contest celebrates Dogs Days of Summer

Plainfield Park District is going “mutts” during August with a photo contest that’s for the dogs.

Think your dog looks “fetching” in snap shots?

Get into a “puparazzi” frame of mind with the Plainfield Park District Dog Days of Summer photo contest.

Snap some photos of your four-legged friends looking “pawsome” on social media using the hash tag #PPDPets between Aug. 1 and Aug. 31.

Three (3) pictures, taken at one of Plainfield Parks’ dog parks, will be picked at random to win a Park District Doggie Prize Pack.

Park District Dog Park Locations:

- Clow Stephens | 16650 S. Lily Cache Rd., Plainfield
- Van Horn Woods East | 17200 S. Frontage Rd., Plainfield
- Daisy Dog Park | 13214 S. Blakely, Plainfield (on 135th St. approximately ½ mile west of Route 30.)

The Rules:

- Photos must be taken and shared between Aug.1 and Aug. 31
- By submitting photos, contest participants are agreeing to allow the use of their photos on Plainfield Park District social media accounts, its website, and in future Park District print advertising and program brochures
- Winners will be notified through their social media accounts
- Share publicly on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram using the hashtag #PPDPets
